

Pallavi Parmar Starts her Beauty Parlor from Home.

20 year old Pallavi Parmar wanted to work but was unable to do so because of her commitments towards her family and her small baby. Her husband works as a welder in a private company and does not earn much. She had attended the training conducted by I Create Snehdeep, Vadodara and her passion to work was rekindled.

She started a small beauty parlor in her village and opens it only in the afternoon so that she can finish all her work and also for her customers who are mainly housewives from her area who are free only in the afternoons. She keeps her parlor open till late evening so that college students can avail her services.

She earns Rs.4,000 a month and is helped Rs.50,000 from I Create MAGIC fund to start her beauty parlor.
